Enterprise Computer Vision solutions

Provided a team of DevOps engineers with previous solid experience using Terraform for production and development environments on the fly for an enterprise company that develops computer vision solutions.

Core Client Requirements

Transformation and redeployment of current environments in order to ensure stability and maintainability of development and production infrastructure

Distinguished features: Industry

An Enterprise-grade Computer Vision solution and a marketplace where people can connect to exchange financial services

Unique tech approach overview

Transformation of production and development environments into terraform driven structure

Technology list

AWS, EC2, Terraform, Docker, Kubernetes, Chef

Results

A team of DevOps engineers was set up in 2 weeks that has delivered and actively maintained new ways to startup and scale environments cost-effectively and rapidly

Duration of engagement

1+ year

Computer Vision solutions